For those who are unwell in our Parish During times of sickness, when we cannot get to mass, the church offers the grace of receiving the Eucharist (and anointing of the sick) at home or hospital. Most of us will in our lives have times of illness when we simply cannot be with our brothers and sisters at mass. This can happen at any age or for many different reasons, for example recovering from a stroke, needing surgery, miscarriage, cancer or immobility. We are all a part of the body of Christ and when you cannot be with us it impacts us all. Please do not have any fear, embarrassment or inhibition in asking Fr Vic and his team of Eucharistic ministers to come to you. It would bring us (all) great joy to serve you at this time in your life.
