The Holy Year of Mercy ends on the Feast of Christ The King on 20th November.

This is very close now and so it is perhaps worthwhile reminding ourselves of the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy which we are asked to try and live out in our lives.

Corporal works of mercy

To feed the hungry;
To give drink to the thirsty;
To clothe the naked;
To shelter the homeless/ welcome the stranger;
To visit the sick;
To visit the imprisoned.
To bury the dead.

Spiritual Works of Mercy

To instruct the ignorant
To counsel the doubtful;
To admonish sinners;
To bear wrongs patiently;
To comfort the afflicted;
To forgive offences willingly
To pray for the living and the dead.

Ecumenism Today - Wednesday 23rd November at 7.30pm in The Sacred Heart Church

Catholic and Anglican relations in the 21st Century, a discussion between Bishop Stephen Platten, The Rector of St Michael's Cornhill, in the City of London, and honorary Assistant Bishop in the Diocese of London; and Archbishop Kevin McDonald, Archbishop Emeritus of the Catholic Diocese of Southwark, and Chair of the Bishop's Conference Committee for other Faiths. Everyone is welcome to attend this interesting evening with such high calibre speakers. Refreshments will be served.

This evening is being organised and jointly hosted by Churches Together in Goudhurst.

Pope Francis Year of Mercy Prayer

Lord, may your message of mercy and forgiveness reach everyone during this Jubilee Year. May no one be indifferent to your invitation. For our sake you have poured out your innermost life, a life of love and truth and mercy, in the death of Jesus and in the coming of the Holy Spirit. Your glory fills our world. How much more it would shine if our lives reflected it more clearly! Forgive our sins. Forgive the failings of us, your Church, by which we obscure your infinite goodness. Cleanse us so that we do not dishonour your name but rather show forth only your love and mercy.
